

Permit Denied To Smith For Garage South Of Truckee

With the Truckee member, Francis Longo, disqualifying himself, the Nevada County Planning Commission Monday night unanimously rejected the application for a special use permit from the Alpine Smith Construction Company for construction of a garage on the Brockway shortcut just south of Truckee.

Ray Smith, owner of the company, recently purchased the property with verbal assurance that a permit was not required, since the equipment to be housed and maintained at the garage was that of the owner and that no commercial work would be done.

However, this opinion was overruled by the county council, who placed the property in A-1 (agricultural) zoning and ruled that the equipment would be used commercially and therefore a permit was required.

Some 15 opponents to the issuance of a permit attended Monday night's meeting with Dr. H. P. Tapia representing the Truckee-Donner Park and Recreation Commission and Dr. Ray Wiser speaking for the Truckee-Donner Horsemen's Association. Letters from these two organizations as well as one from the Truckee-Donner Chamber of Commerce opposed the granting of the permit.

Smith, with the assurance that there would be no official approval required, had started work on the project.

Smith has the right of appeal to the board of supervisors but did not indicate that he would take that action at Monday's meeting.

Because of his interest in the area, Longo declined to vote on the issue.

Petitions Short Of Required Signers For Incorporation

Proponents of the plan to incorporate the Truckee-Donner community into a city and thus provide the facilities and services available, report that more signatures are necessary on the petitions calling for an election to determine the issue.

Dr. Ben R. King, chairman of the Truckee Donner Chamber of Commerce committee seeking the election, said that approximately eight percent more assessed valuation in the proposed city must be obtained before an election can be requested.

Any one of the three major private utilities in the area—the Sierra Pacific with $187,000 assessed valuation, the Pacific Telephone Company with $260,000 or Southern Pacific with $350,000 in assessments—could put the proposition over, Dr. King explained.

While there are many steps to be taken before an election can be held, including approval of the county formation commission, the signatures representing 25 percent of the assessed valuation must be obtained first.

Anyone wishing to sign the petition may do so by calling either Dr. or Mrs. King or Mrs. Patsy Tonini, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

Commission Gives Greyhound Permit To Bypass Donner

In its final opinion and order, the Public Utilities Commission of California has ruled that service by Greyhound Lines to serve the Donner Lake area is not required and that the service ordered in the original opinion following public hearings, will be discontinued.

The final opinion states in part: We find that:

1. Public convenience and necessity do not require applicant to serve Donner Lake Lodge.

2. The time tables published and filed by applicant designate reasonable service to Donner Lake Lodge.

We conclude that the certificate of public convenience and necessity granted to applicant in Decision No. 68342 should be amended to delete the requirement that it serve Donner Lake Lodge, and that in all other respects the order in said decision should be made final.

The original order gave Greyhound Lines the right to change their routing from old Highway 40 to Interstate 80, bypassing Soda Springs, Donner Summit, Norden, Cisco Grove, Emigrant Gap and other communities en route.

The company declared that off-route trips to Donner Lake were inconveniencing through passengers and that only two or three patrons a week utilized the service.

Trout Fishing Will Open In This Area; Prospects Bright

Prospects for the opening of the general trout season in this area Saturday loom bright, according to all indications. The weather should be good and while many streams will be high and muddy because of the snow runoff, bait fishing will predominate, fly fishermen being delayed for a few weeks.

The season opens May 1 and closes October 31. Previous limits of 10 trout in combination, but not more than 10 pounds, plus one fish, will be in effect again this year.

The department of fish and game reminded that anglers will need the $3 fishing license and two $1 fishing stamps. Fishermen are urged to check the 1965 regulations for a rundown on the special stream and lake closures and regional bag limits.

Most of the waters within this region are described as cold, high, roily and muddy with many sites above the 5,000-foot level still hurt by snow and ice.

Two of the many spots recommended by the department for early fishing are Boca and Prosser reservoirs with the Truckee, Little Truckee, Sagehen and other streams accessible for the most part.

Donner Lake which opened April 3 is providing some excellent fishing while Tahoe, open all year, has been luring many fishermen to the area.

Lunardi's Bill Would Aid Snow Removal

State Senator Paul J. Lunardi has introduced legislation that would require the state department of public works to maintain snow removal operations on highways superseded by the relocation and construction of freeways.

Senator Lunardi pointed out that Senate Bill 1252 specifically includes those highways that provided access to winter recreational areas which were developed prior to the state's relinquishment to the particular county.

Present provisions in the streets and highways code do not obligate the department of public works to continue removing snow from any superseded highway, he said. It merely authorizes the department to maintain snow removal operations, if it so desires, as long as it has the consent of the county to whom the highway has been relinquished.

The senator advised that a prime example of a superseded highway in Placer and Nevada Counties not having snow removal maintenance after this year is those portions of old highway 40 near Cisco eastward to Kingsvale, and a section from the Blue Canyon Interchange eastward to its terminus at Putt's Lake.

DONNER DOINGS . . .

By Marcella Corro
Telephone 587-3338

Ah, this balmy weather and everyone seems to have spring fever, laying in the outdoors and looking at the work to be done.

Tom and Jeri Bonano finally made that long postponed trip to Palm Springs. They went for the sunshine but it was cloudy and warm. They met Dee Osborn, retired Truckee elementary school teacher in Palm Springs and visited with Jeri's mother in 29 Palms.

The Donner Lake Auxiliary met last Thursday eve at Donner Lake Lodge. Hostesses for the evening were Ozella Slate and Charlotte Harris. Pig in the Poke was won by Louise McCallen. The current project is completion of an up to date fire dues donations.

CASTING AROUND DONNER: With the temperature high and the lake calm, last weekend proved excellent for fishing with about 50 boats out. Many limits of kokanee were taken and some nice rainbow trout from shore weighing up to a pound. Jim Bausano landed a 3-pound German brown off shore using a spinner. With the water shallow, Jim wasn't taking any chances; he walked right in to net his catch. Teddy Scardina checked her line only to find a duck hooked. Sorry, Teddy, they're out of season. If you look out on the lake when it's calm, you'll see schools of kokanee churning or perhaps being chased by mackinaws.

Our fish tale this week has no ending—Done from the Richfield station and a fellow fisherman were out trolling when a seagull landed on the water nearby. The next time they looked the gull was pulled under and disappeared. This was the end!

The Spring Thaw held last Saturday at Donner Lake Lodge was a big success. It was the largest attendance they have had and everyone enjoyed the evening. A delicious buffet was served and a three-piece combo provided dancing music. The affair was sponsored by the Truckee Cooperative Nursery School.

Many of us have heard from the St. Claires in Florida. They are leaving May 1 for Washington and will visit Donner late in June. Everyone is anxious to see them and hope they'll decide to stay.

Governor Approves UC Salary Increases

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Governor Edmund G. Brown has asked the California legislature to approve salary increases for the faculty of the University of California of about 8.5 per cent.

This was an increase from his earlier request for raises of 5 per cent. It followed by a week his request to increase salaries of the state college faculties by 10 per cent, rather than the earlier proposal for 5 per cent boosts.

Under the new proposal for the university, all faculty would receive an increase of 7.5 per cent, at an annual cost of $7,776,300. In addition, another $1 million would go for individual faculty salary adjustments.

"A new survey of faculty salaries across the nation shows that this increase is needed to maintain the high quality of the faculty of our university," Brown said. "Good teachers deserve the highest salaries this state can afford. In addition, the competition California faces in recruiting new faculty members at a time of explosive growth in colleges and universities around the U. S. makes the increase imperative."

The Story of SHENANDOAH

EXCEPT for Gettysburg, the bloody battles of the Civil War raged across the fertile, rolling farmlands of the Confederate states. Cannon blasts, musket fire, bayonets, and the ravages of men at war turned whole countryside like the lush and peaceful Shenandoah Valley of Virginia into stripped and stricken wastelands.

PEOPLE uncommitted to either cause, who hoped to stay neutral, soon found that a war fought close at hand had to involve them and their loved ones. The story of such a family is tenderly told in Universal's "Shenandoah". In the film, James Stewart is head of the family caught by circumstance in a war they had tried to ignore.

and Kristin Beatty received the highest grades in our review of fractions and decimals.

Those students who have received the highest grades on the first unit on constitution are Susan Hawkins, Richard Johnson, Sandy Martin, Greg Pyle, Doug Turner, Mickie Barker, Gail Burghardt, Gary Miner and David Boothby.

Our class officers for this month have been Shari Bell, president; Gregg Gunkel, vice president; Greg Pyle, secretary; Terry Henson, treasurer; Steve Williams, librarian, and Susan Hawkins and Steve Stewart student council representatives with Cathy McIntire and Doug Turner as alternates.

Student Body: After an informative business meeting of committee activity reports, Gary Price, vice president, presented a diversified program. The DeMolay trampoline team, under the direction of Armen Abrahamian, demonstrated the basic positions, plus some fancy twists including a double jumping exhibition.

This was followed by a number of most enjoyable folk songs by the Hard Travelers assisted by Mr. Frank Austin. Between these colorful acts, Mr. Price presented the honor roll certificates for the third quarter to Martha Pope, Bonnie Weber, Scott Hawkins, Vickie Hamilton, Cathy Jerrems, Patricia Gant, Jan Achziger, Susan Leon, Scott Williams, John Gorrindo, Robert Hambleton, Jerry Jerrems, Gary Martin, Gary Price, Mark Rutledge, Dona Beck, Lana Hill, Taber Maxhimer, Susan Robinson, Sandy Martin, Mickie Barker, Shari Bell, Gail Burghardt, Susan Hawkins, Cathy McIntire, Sharon Roberts, Richard Johnson, Gary Miner, Doug Turner, Steve Williams, Gregg Gunkel and David Boothby.

NEWSPAPERS: Guardians of Freedom Safeguard for Our Form of Government

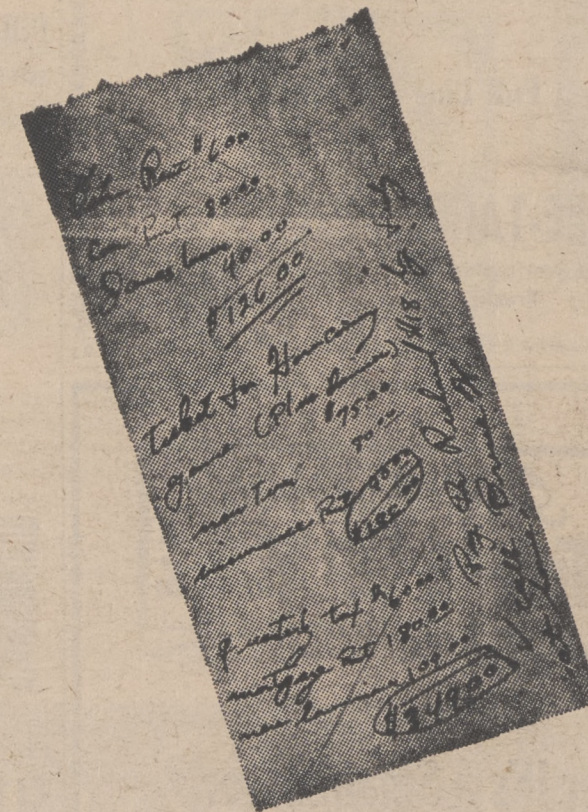

Said Thomas Jefferson:

Were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter. When the press is free and every man able to read, all is safe.

How to save money when the budget says no

Buying U. S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan won't eliminate your monthly bout with the budget. But it will guarantee that you won't spend all your money before you save some.

Guaranteed—because the money is saved before you ever see it. Your payroll department sets it aside, as much or as little as you say, and puts it into Savings Bonds for you. No memory tests. No temptation.

The minute your Bond is bought, it goes to work for your future. It pays back $4 for every $3 invested at maturity—and even more if you hold it longer. A nice way to make your security grow.

Another nice thing: while your savings are growing, the dollars are helping our nation and our government keep strong for freedom.

Call your payroll department and sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan before next payday. See if you don't feel just a little bit better at bill-paying time.

Ross, Robbin Dittberner and John VonNolde.

First Grade—Mrs. Kelly: Last week we used water color paints for the first time. All of the children listened carefully and made some beautiful pictures. Especially nice pictures were painted by Dave Butterfield, Chris Hodgekins, Karla Rad, Liz Rogers, Cindy Hoff, Kim Pier, John Shaver and Paul Baker.

Second Grade—Mrs. Steinhauser: 100 per cent in spelling for spelling last were: Karrie Stueven, Curt Collins, Pamela Baker, Danny Head, Anja Eriksson, Cheri Dittberner, Michelle Meyer, Penny Nichols, Paul Johnston, Ken Brown, Teresa Purcell, Colleen Connors, Mike Carnell and Linda Williams.

Second Grade—Mrs. Read: Those receiving perfect scores on their science test on the sun were: Leslie Cordone, Blain Hendrix, Michelle Chisholm, Mark Mercer, Vicki Austin, Cheryl O'Brien, Willie Stubenberg, Andy Bodine, Judy Jankowsky, Sandra Siegel, Jeannie Gregory and Linda Cosby.

President last week was Judy Jankowsky. Her helpers were Kathy Rogers, Leslie Cordone and Jeannie Gregory. Librarian was Brad Onorato and ball monitor Tim Tilton.

We welcomed Steven Christopherson to our class last week. He has moved here from San Rafael.

Third Grade—Mrs. Long: Our class welcomed four new classmates last week, two girls and two boys. Connie Christopherson came to us from San Rafael, Molly Hanna comes from Bakersfield, David Head from San Mateo and Vernon Holmwood came to us from Anaheim. We hope they will enjoy being with us at Tahoe Lake.

Fourth-Fifth Combination Class—Mrs. Diurni: The big news the past week was "Rocks". The science study of "Inside the Earth" has stimulated interest in volcanoes, rocks, rocks and more rocks. Jeri Sampson is sharing her personal rock collection (lots of obsidian), Kenny Nichols brought some large sandstone rocks he collected while living in the Los Angeles area. Scott Jorgensen and Mike Davis are making a sample of rock strata and Greg and Garth Collins did four diagrams of a volcanic island being formed.

Other good deeds for the week were: 100 (A) for Jeri Sampson and Pam Wightman on their test of U. S. geography — western states; a notebook in science was made by Sandy Keechler, Pattie Tilton, Pam Wightman, Debbie Everson and Mary Ann Barulich.

Mow Your Lawn...SAFELY—

More people are injured in bathtubs than by power lawn mowers. But mower accidents needn't happen at all—if simple everyday care is used. Flying objects — stones, wire or debris thrown up by the revolving blades are a frequent cause of accidents. So keep children and pets well out of range of the mowing area. That's a basic rule.

Another good rule is to stop your engine when working on it, filling it with fuel or leaving it for even a few seconds. Best to disconnect spark wire, too, to avoid "shocks" when tinkering with the engine.

The power mower industry has asked the American Standards Association to set up safety specifications to be built into the mower. This triangular label means the specifications have been met by the manufacturer. So look for the Seal of Safety before you buy.

Jean Saubert of Oregon and Rod Hebron of Canada were first place winners in the Buddy Werner Memorial Slalom held at Sugar Bowl last Saturday.

Cathy Allen of San Pedro was second and Linda Meyers of Mammoth, third. In the men's field, Philippe Mollard of France had the fastest first run, but was second in the combined time, and Peter Duncan of Canada, third.

Jim Heuga of Tahoe City was in third place at the end of the first run, but missed a gate in the second trip down and did not finish.

The courses were set on the steep nose of Mt. Disney and many of the racers had trouble negotiating the tight gates. Out of eighteen women to start, six were disqualified and in the men's race, eight disqualified and sixteen did not finish out of forty-two contestants.

Rock salt was applied to the courses to keep a hard finish to the soft spring snow.

Sunday the twenty-third annual Silver Belt Trophy Race was held on Mt. Lincoln during another sunny day.

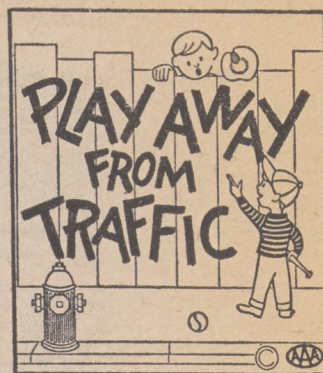

The Swiss took the first three places in the men's division, Jacob Tischhauser, Edmond Bruggmann and Stefan Kaelin. Billy Kidd was fourth and Jim Heuga fifth.

Marion Davis of Homewood, Velda Farris and Gwen Wood of Incline Village drove to San Francisco last Friday on business.

Dunham and Stella Seaton of Incline Village have moved to Prattville, Alabama, much to the regret of all their friends. Dunham was associated with his longtime friend, Don Beck in real estate. Don was responsible for the Seaton's coming from England since he flew under Seaton's command.

Sandra Seaton went to Louisiana to be with her sister, Jill, whose husband, Hayden Lockhart, was shot down in a helicopter over Viet Nam and was captured by the communists. The story of his capture is in last week's Life magazine.

Yvonne McCoy and son, Bobbie of Crystal Shores enjoyed visiting relatives in Stockton during Easter vacation. Also visited former Incline Village resident, June Clark and daughter Christine, who are now living in Berkeley before their return home. Christine might happen to have a new horse, while June asked to be remembered to all her friends.

William J. and Mabel Coulter of Incline Beach are enjoying a three week vacation in Hawaii. Howard and Millicent Jamison are at the Coulter residence during their absence.

Lee and Tricia Holley of Incline Village flew to New York this past week. Tricia flew on to England to visit with her family while Lee stayed in New York on business. Lee draws "Pony Tails".

Jack and Zoe Ann Jensen and children, Jan, Jon and Jay, of Crystal Bay enjoyed Easter vacation with Zoe's parents, Art and Norma Olsen in Oakland. Jay spoiled his vacation by having the chicken pox which seems to be prevalent among the kindergarten set at the present time.

Jack is busy doing previews of the Giants and Dodgers on Channel 2, Oakland. He and Alex Stewart plan on opening the Ponderosa golf course at Truckee around the 15th of May—weather permitting.

FACTS ABOUT LICENSE PLATES

"Stub" Farlow is one of only five men whose faces appear on plates. The other four are the presidents on Mt. Rushmore National Memorial, reproduced on South Dakota plates. Farlow is a World War I era rodeo cowboy who rides a bronco on Wyoming plates.

In 1901 when New York state introduced plates, motorists made their own of tin cans and shingles. New York was the first state to require tags.

Seventeen states issue "safety" plates, which reflect headlights and help prevent night accidents, particularly deadly rear-end collisions. The glowing tags can be seen for 2,000 feet and are 150 times brighter than ordinary painted plates.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Several bills which could have the effect of causing the state to operate on a less socialistic basis in the handling of its employees, have been introduced by State Senator George Miller, D-Contra Costa County.

At the present time, state employees are coddled in many instances with unmerited pay increases, some of them deserving and some not earned. In other words, the state has acceded to the socialistic theory of one for all and all for one, with no consideration for production.

This, it has been pointed out over the years, has been one of the fallacies of civil service, which directs employees into a rut and discourages enterprise in the performance of duties for the people.

SB 1244, by Senator Miller, would delete the provision for automatic salary adjustments for state civil service employees and provide that these increases be granted for merit only when employees meet the standards of efficiency established by the state personnel board.

To avoid favoritism, the bill would require that in the case of denial of a salary increase, the supervisor of the employee would be required to give an explanation and counsel for the improvement of performance. Also, the supervisor's action would be subject to review only by his superior, thus eliminating a lot of appeals to the board itself.

Another Miller measure would permit open, non-promotional examinations to fill vacancies at any level of state employment. Under the current procedures, examinations for higher paying state jobs are open only to personnel already with the state in lesser jobs. Under this system, the public in some instances is deprived of the services of men and women who have had vast experience in various fields that are applicable to state operations.

This situation also creates a monopoly on state jobs by employees who have started in the service as clerks, and who lack the wide outside experience which helps them recognize the needs, and also the problems of the public.

The Miller bills in no way, however, affect the opportunity for the state employee to advance in his position. But, under these bills, his competition would be keener, and the public served better.

It is fully expected that the California state Employees Association will have something to say about the Miller measures. This organization is made up of most of California's state employees, and represents them at the state legislature. Members pay dues whether or not they are capable employees.

Appointing heads of departments often are frustrated by the restrictive regulations of the personnel board in securing employees who can handle a job. Still another Miller bill would allow greater leeway in selection from individuals who have passed a civil service ex-

NEW RECORD IS SET IN FUEL CONSUMPTION

Cars and trucks in California consumed more than seven billion gallons of fuel in 1964, a seven per cent jump that topped the biggest national gain in a decade, Paul R. Leake, state board of equalization member disclosed today.

Gasoline and diesel fuel tax revenues administered by the board totaled $510,415,000, up 18 per cent with a big assist from the 1963 penny-per-gallon gas tax hike.

Leake, third district member, said federal tax administrators reported 1964 motor fuel consumption by opening selection to those who are within four points of the highest three on the list.

The Miller bills are taking civil service corrections by easy stages, and not attempting to wipe out the system and start all over, a step which has been suggested.

tion nationally was four per cent higher than the preceding year, the largest increase since 1955.

Gross revenues from the three highway-user-taxes administered by the board were $527,524,000 in 1964 for the construction and maintenance of highways and city and county thoroughfares.

State gas tax revenues were $75,741,000 above 1963's total, pumping about $484,270,000 into the fund. This 19 per cent jump was based on the distribution of 6,918,100,000 taxable gallons, a six per cent gain over 1963.

Margo Coby of Incline Village and the Sierra Tahoe spent three days in San Francisco last week on business. First time away since last September—and then on business.

Wendy Farris of southern California enjoyed a visit with parents, Jack and Velda Farris, at Incline Village this past week.

High School Seniors Hear Sierra Speaker

On Thursday, the senior class at Tahoe Truckee High School had the privilege of getting first-hand information about Sierra College in particular and the vast mysterious world of college and work in general, from four representatives of Sierra.

Those in attendance were Marion Akers, vice president; Martin Taylor, registrar, Fran Van Vliet, director of vocational education and extended day; and Barton Newlin, instructor in business education and coordinator of work experience.

The students were given an informative picture of what college work means and consists of, as well as a comprehensive review of both the transfer and vocational curricula offered at Sierra.

Students were reminded that the three steps necessary to get into Sierra consist of:

1. Filing an application.
2. Taking the A.C.T. test and presenting scores to Sierra.
3. Presenting a transcript of all high school work, including the fact of graduation.

Parents were invited to attend. Those parents who are interested in learning more about their college may contact either the high school counseling staff or Taylor's office at Sierra College in Rocklin.

Game Official Asks Aid For Tahoe Fish

CRYSTAL BAY—Robert Montgomery, regional manager of the California Fish and Game Department, speaking before a meeting of the Tahoe Regional Planning Commission last week, urged assistance by the area residents to improve fishing at the lake.

Montgomery said 26,000 pounds of 12-inch trout will be planted in Tahoe late next summer but added that while this will improve fishing it is not the ultimate answer. He suggested that matching money be obtained from county or state recreation tax or other means to double the number of fish planted. He said the state has spent $300,000 in six years studying ways to improve fishing at Tahoe and reports will be made to provide guidelines for the future.

Auxiliary's Sierra Spree On May 20

Plans for the annual Sierra Spree to be held at the North Shore Club in Crystal Bay were discussed at the April meeting of the Tahoe Forest Hospital Auxiliary, held in the home of Mrs. Jack Holley of Dollar Point.

The Sierra Spree is a dinner dance held each year on the night preceding the opening of the club to the general public. All proceeds from the gala affair go for the purchase of extra patient comfort items by the Auxiliary for the patients of the Tahoe Forest Hospital and is the only money raising event sponsored by the organization each year.

This year's dance will be held on Thursday night, May 20. The cocktail hour will begin at 5:30 followed by a buffet dinner served during the entire evening and dancing. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Auxiliary.

The business meeting, conducted by the Auxiliary's president, Mrs. Lee Van Wetter, was followed by refreshments.

TESTS ARE STARTED ON WATER IN LAKE

Cy Armstrong, local sanitarian, said this week that tests of the water in Donner Lake started yesterday to determine the purity of the popular lake and to learn what detergents and other impurities are getting into the water and to what extent.

The tests are being financed by the department of health and the Lahontan Water Pollution Control Board, Armstrong said. The tests will be made in all parts of the lake periodically.
